DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT TO DUAL AGENCY

Owner acknowledges that Broker's Designated Agent(s) (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Licensee") may undertake a dual representation and represent both the Seller and the purchaser for the sale of the Property. Seller acknowledges it has been informed of the possibility of this type of representation. In executing the Agreement, Seller acknowledges that it has read the following information:

Representing more than one party to a transaction presents a conflict of interest since both clients may rely upon Licensee's advice and the clients' respective interests may be adverse to each other. Licensee will undertake this representation only with the written consent of each of Licensee's clients in the transaction. Any agreement between the clients as to a final Sale Contract price and other terms shall be a result of negotiations between the clients acting in their own best interests and on their own behalf. Seller acknowledges that Licensee has explained the implications of dual representation, including the risks involved, and understands that Seller has been advised to seek independent advice from advisors or attorneys before signing any documents in this transaction.

1. Treat all clients honestly;
2. Provide information about the Property to the purchaser or tenant;
3. Disclose all latent material defects in the Property that are known to Licensee;
4. Disclose financial qualification of the purchaser or tenant to the Seller ;
5. Explain real estate terms;
6. Help the purchaser or tenant to arrange for Property inspections;
7. Explain closing costs and procedures;
8. Help the purchaser compare financing alternatives; and
9. Provide information about comparable properties that have sold so both clients may make educated decisions on what price to accept or offer.

WHAT A LICENSEE CANNOT DISCLOSE TO CLIENTS WHEN ACTING AS A DUAL AGENT:

1. Confidential information that Licensee may know about the clients, without the client's permission;
2. The price the Seller will take other than the listing price without permission of the Seller;
3. The price the purchaser is willing to pay without permission of the purchaser.
4. A recommended or suggested price the purchaser should offer; and
5. A recommended or suggested price which the Seller should counter or accept.

If Seller is uncomfortable with this disclosure and dual representation, Seller agrees to so inform Licensee. Seller is not required to consent to dual agency unless Seller wishes to allow the Licensee to proceed as a Dual Agent in this transaction.
